

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

THE MESSAGE PSALM 42

A white-tail deer drinks from the creek; I want to drink God, deep drafts of God.

I'm thirsty for God-alive. I wonder, "Will I ever make it - arrive and drink in God's presence?"

I'm on a diet of tears - tears for breakfast, tears for supper. All day long, people knock at my door. Pestering, "Where is this God of Yours?"

These are the things I go over and over, emptying out the pockets of my life. I was always at the head of the worshiping crowd, right out in front, leading them all, eager to arrive and worship, shouting praises, singing thanksgiving - celebrating all of us. God's feast!

Why are you down in the dumps, dear soul? Why are you crying the blues?

Fix my eyes on God - soon I'll be praising again. He puts a smile on my face. He's my God.

When my soul is in the dumps, I rehearse everything I know of you, from Jordan depths to Hermon heights, including Mount Mizar.

Chaos calls to chaos, to the tune of whitewater rapids. Your breaking surf, your thundering breakers crash and crush me.

Then God promises to love me all day, sing songs all through the night! My life is God's prayer.

Sometimes I ask God, my rock-solid God, "Why did you let me down? Why am I walking around in tears harassed by enemies?"

They're out for the kill, these tormentors with their obscenities,

Taunting day after day, "Where is this God of yours?"

Why are you down in the dumps, dear soul? Why are you crying the blues?

Fix my eyes on God - soon I'll be praising again. He puts a smile on my face. He's my God.
